

CONTENTS.

VOLUME VIII.

No. 1, To the Republicans of the Island of Albion, being a review of Major Cartwright's volume, entitled the English Constitution produced and illustrated.

No. 2, An Address, &c.—Letters by James Hall on the Bishop of Winchester's Charge, and on various subjects—From and to William Butler, of Birmingham—From and to D. Nield, of Ripponden—Extract of a letter from Aberdeen—Letter from James Watson—From J. Butler Levant—Atheism no Crime, by John Johns—Letter from Humphrey Boyle.

No. 3, An Address, &c.—On the conquest of the moral world, a pamphlet presented to the conqueror of the physical world, Napoleon, Emperor of the French, by John Stewart—Article on organization and intellect—Letter to the Editor of the Hampshire County Newspaper—The morality of Atheism contrasted with religious morality, by Aristippus—Of the religion of Deism compared with the Christian religion, and the superiority of the former over the latter, by Thomas Paine.

No. 4, An Address to the Vice Society, or to the animals who call themselves a society for the Suppression of Vice—Letters from and to John Emmerson; of Stella, near Newcastle—John Hewson of Leeds—William Tillotson, of Hunslet—And Edward Nobbs, of Norwich—From G. B. G., of Boston—From and to John Smith, of Falkirk—From William Carver, of New York—Religious Intelligence.

No. 5, Letter to William Carver, of New York—Blue Laws of Connecticut—Letter from and to John Smart, of Aberdeen—And Thomas Baker, of Kensington—To Thomas Denman.

No. 6, An Address to the Republicans of the Island of Albion—Letter Second from James Watson—From and to Squire Farrar of Otley—Moses Colclough, of Nottingham—James Harrison, of Preston—From James Hall.

No. 7, An Address, &c.—Letter from Harmodious on organization and intellect—Essay on Religion, by Epicurus—Monarchy, or Political Reflections, concluded, by Allen Davenport—Letters by James Hall.

No. 8, Letter to George Harris—Letter by N. Dralloe—Letters by James Hall—Hints towards forming a society for enquiring into the truth or falsehood of ancient history, &c. with letters to Messrs. Moore and Mason of New York, by Thomas Paine.

No. 9, Letter to Samuel Thompson—From and to Joseph Nicholson, of Dewsbury—And William Paine, of Bath—From I. G.—Of the books of the New Testament, and remarks on a passage in

CONTENTS.

VOLUME VIII.

No. 1, To the Republicans of the Island of Albion, being a review of Major Cartwright's volume, entitled the English Constitution produced and illustrated.

No. 2, An Address, &c.—Letters by James Hall on the Bishop of Winchester's Charge, and on various subjects—From and to William Butler, of Birmingham—From and to D. Nield, of Ripponden—Extract of a letter from Aberdeen—Letter from James Watson—From J. Butler Levant—Atheism no Crime, by John Johns—Letter from Humphrey Boyle.

No. 3, An Address, &c.—On the conquest of the moral world, a pamphlet presented to the conqueror of the physical world, Napoleon, Emperor of the French, by John Stewart—Article on organization and intellect—Letter to the Editor of the Hampshire County Newspaper—The morality of Atheism contrasted with religious morality, by Aristippus—Of the religion of Deism compared with the Christian religion, and the superiority of the former over the latter, by Thomas Paine.

No. 4, An Address to the Vice Society, or to the animals who call themselves a society for the Suppression of Vice—Letters from and to John Emmerson; of Stella, near Newcastle—John Hewson of Leeds—William Tillotson, of Hunslet—And Edward Nobbs, of Norwich—From G. B. G., of Boston—From and to John Smith, of Falkirk—From William Carver, of New York—Religious Intelligence.

No. 5, Letter to William Carver, of New York—Blue Laws of Connecticut—Letter from and to John Smart, of Aberdeen—And Thomas Baker, of Kensington—To Thomas Denman.

No. 6, An Address to the Republicans of the Island of Albion—Letter Second from James Watson—From and to Squire Farrar of Otley—Moses Colclough, of Nottingham—James Harrison, of Preston—From James Hall.

No. 7, An Address, &c.—Letter from Harmodious on organization and intellect—Essay on Religion, by Epicurus—Monarchy, or Political Reflections, concluded, by Allen Davenport—Letters by James Hall.

No. 8, Letter to George Harris—Letter by N. Dralloc—Letters by James Hall—Hints towards forming a society for enquiring into the truth or falsehood of ancient history, &c. with letters to Messrs. Moore and Mason of New York, by Thomas Paine.

No. 9, Letter to Samuel Thompson—From and to Joseph Nicholson, of Dewsbury—And William Paine, of Bath—From I. G.—Of the books of the New Testament, and remarks on a passage in the 5th chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Romans, by Thomas Paine—Notice of the New Temple of Reason.

No. 10, A Leader—Letter Third from James Watson—On Liberty and Necessity, an extract from Burdon's Materials for Thinking—Letter to Reuben Hernshaw, of Kirkburton, by James Penny, of Millbridge.

No. 11, Materialism versus Methodism, a Letter to Joseph Butterworth.

No. 12. Letter to William Wait of Bristol—From and to Dr. Rudge, at Weymouth—To Lord Chancellor Eldon—From and to the Republicans of Portsea—The Republicans of Sleaford—Correspondence between the late Mr. Ricardo and John Townsend—Correspondence with, and anecdote of, the Vicar of Cerne—Notes to the Chaplain of Dorchester Gaol—Gaol matters, on the death of, and inquest on, James Dare.

No. 13, Letter from Humphrey Boyle to his brother James Boyle, of Manchester—From T. R. Bayley Potts—From J. E. Ellerker—To the Editor of the Dorchester, Sherborne, and Taunton Journal—From and to John Cameron, of Bolton—James Penny, of Millbridge, near Halifax—Further correspondence with the Vicar of Cerne—Extract from Burdon's Materials for Thinking

No. 14, An Address to the Inhabitants of the county of Dorset, including letters to Sheriffs, Visiting Magistrates, Gaoler, &c.—Letter from John Smith, of Plymouth—From D. Nield, of Ripponden—From H.—Letter to the Bishop of London, at Weymouth.

No. 15, An Address to the Republicans of the Island of Albion—Letter from T. R. Bayley Potts, with the correspondence between Mr. Burdon, and the Freethinking Christians—Letter from I. G., Note by Editor—The Character of the French Physicians, and the French Army, by Philanthropos—Notes to Correspondents.

No. 16, Letter to Mrs. Fry—Notice of a visit from Mr. Richman, &c.—Trial of Dr. Cleeve, of Exeter—Letter to the Vicar of Cerne—Character of a Common Brewer, by Philanthropos—Letters from and to T. Turton, of Sheffield—Samuel Ross, of Leeds—And Joseph Lawton, of Salford—Extract from the Prussian Code relating to punishment for blasphemies.

No. 17, An Address to the Christian Reformers of Leeds, by Humphrey Boyle—Letter to M. A. Carlile, by an Enemy to Persecution—Letter by J. E. C.—Essay on the Deity and attributes, by Epicurus—On religion and nature, by Ditto—Letter to Charles Byam Wollaston, Visiting Magistrate for Dorchester Gaol—An argument against the competency of a Court of Law to try a charge of blasphemous publication.

No. 18, Letters to Chief Justice Abbott, to the Vice Society, by John Jones—From what authority should new political institutions emanate?—A specimen of the comforts of being considered a wise man!---Letter from Allan Mac Fadyen, with comments on the case of the child said to be born with his father's name on his eyes, &c.---From Richard Hassell---From a Lover of Truth at Hull, concerning the Reverend G. C. Smith---From and to John Thompson, of Wakefield---To Galpin, of the Phoenix Inn, Dorchester---To James Watson, by an Enemy to Persecution---To Correspondents.

No. 19, Letter to the Inhabitants of the County of Dorset---To William Morton Pitt, of Kingston House, near Dorchester---To a Friend, by Edward Henman---From J. E. C., with notes and extracts---Lamentation for Spain---Anecdote of Galileo, with note by Anti-Christ---Correspondence between Mr. Carlile and the Lawyers---Letters to Chief Justice Abbot---From Pere Dealtry---To the Solicitor to the Treasury---To the Attorney General---Affidavit in the Court of King's Bench---To Correspondents.

No. 20, Letter to Robert Hindmarsh, Priest of the sect of Swedenborgians---Liberation of Mary Ann Carlile, with a copy of her discharge warrant---Observations on the instructions given by Jesus Christ, chap. 1---On the importance of plain dealing and sincerity---Letter to Humphrey Boyle by an Enemy to Persecution---From Examiner---To the Republicans of the Island of Albion, by John Harper, on behalf of the Miles Platting Reading Society.

No. 21. Letter to the Vicar of Cerne on Predestination---To Ditto, by Richard Hassell, Jun.---Letter Fourth by James Watson.

No. 22, Letter to the Inhabitants of the County of Dorset, including notes to Visiting Magistrates, to Gaoler, and to Chaplain, Petition of the Saucepans and Hand-brush, and letters from a friend in Hampshire.

No. 23, Correspondence with Isaac Carter, of Portsea---Letter from Robert Affleck, with chaps. 2 and 3 of the Observations on the instructions given by Jesus Christ.

No. 24, Further controversy on the question of attributing intelligence to Deity, or almighty power, in letters from and to James Taylor, of Waterhead-mill, near Oldham, Lancashire---Letter from J. E. C. with notes by Editor---Influence of religion, its effects bad---On the materiality or immateriality of the mind, by James Penny, Millbridge---Letter from J. S.---From Allen Mac Fadyen---Further communications about the effects of longings in the mother---Paper by Mr. T. Pole, copied from the Medical and Physical Journal, for June, 1800---The Rev. G. C. Smith---To Mr. John Jones, by R. S.

No. 25, Philosophical institutions for the improvement of mechanics---Letter to the Rev. Edward Parsons, Jun. Calvinist Preacher, Sion Chapel, Halifax, by George Crabtree---From and to William Jones, Hull---From Regulator, with note by Editor---From Epicurus---Remarks on Materialism and Deism, by W. V. Holmes---Notice of Pamphlets---Letter from Noli Episcopari---From I. G.---Subscriptions.